

“An Incredible Performance...An Amazing Family!”

—Good Morning America

“Celtic Spring Is The Von Trapp Family Of Celtic Music.”

—Fox 4 News, Dallas/Ft. Worth

Referred to as the “Von Trapp family of Celtic music,” and voted in the top five of NBC’s America’s Got Talent, Celtic Spring is the six Wood family siblings, on fiddles and in dance shoes, backed by their dad on percussion and their mom on keyboard. Celtic Spring’s awe-inspiring performances feature a rich variety of music from the Celtic lands and beyond, with unique arrangements that range in expression from lyrical beauty to dance tempo exuberance. The Wood family’s classical training is evident in their textured arrangements and musical sensitivity. The band members are also highly accomplished Irish dancers and showcase both the powerful “hard shoes,” and the graceful “soft shoes.” Throughout the show fiddles will be exchanged for dance shoes, creating the dynamic interaction between the music and dance. Celtic Spring’s riveting performances have taken the band around the United States, Canada, and Europe, where the band performs at theaters, festivals, schools, and on national TV. The band has released two CD’s, At the Source and Cornerstone. Celtic Spring is a source of inspiration to other young people and brings joy and delight to audiences of all ages. Their show is not to be missed!
